

English 8 — Reading & Grammar Quiz

CC0 1.0 synthetic fixture · Kelyra QA · not real student work

Period P1 · Student page 1/32 · simulated handwriting

Name: Alex Rivera
~~Alex Rivera~~

Date: 09/24/2026

Read the passage:

Marisol kept a small notebook in her backpack. Each afternoon she wrote three things she noticed on the walk home: a cracked sidewalk tile, a dog that always barked twice, the smell of bread from the corner bakery. One Tuesday the bakery was closed. Marisol wrote that down too, then added, "Even missing things are worth noticing."

1. What does Marisol keep in her backpack?
a small notebook
2. How many things does she usually write each afternoon?
three
3. What was different on Tuesday?
the bakery was closez
4. In the last sentence, "missing things" most nearly means _____.
things that are absent / not there
5. Identify the noun in: "The bakery smelled wonderful." (bakery / smelled / wonderful)
bakery
6. Rewrite correctly: she walk home slow.
She walks home slowly.
7. Is the passage fiction or a news report?
fiction
8. One sentence: what theme does Marisol's note suggest?
Paying attention matters, even when something is missing.

English 8 — Reading & Grammar Quiz

CC0 1.0 synthetic fixture · Kelyra QA · not real student work

Period P1 · Student page 2/32 · simulated handwriting

Name: Jordan Chen

Date: 09/24/2026

Read the passage:

Marisol kept a small notebook in her backpack. Each afternoon she wrote three things she noticed on the walk home: a cracked sidewalk tile, a dog that always barked twice, the smell of bread from the corner bakery. One Tuesday the bakery was closed. Marisol wrote that down too, then added, "Even missing things are worth noticing."

1. What does Marisol keep in her backpack?

a small notebook

2. How many things does she usually write each afternoon?

three

3. What was different on Tuesday?

the bakery was closed

4. In the last sentence, "missing things" most nearly means ____.

things that are absent / not there

5. Identify the noun in: "The bakery smelled wonderful." (bakery / smelled / wonderful)

bakery

6. Rewrite correctly: she walk home slow.

She walks home slowly.

7. Is the passage fiction or a news report?

fiction

8. One sentence: what theme does Marisol's note suggest?

Paying attention matters, even when something is missing.

English 8 — Reading & Grammar Quiz

CC0 1.0 synthetic fixture · Kelyra QA · not real student work

Period P1 · Student page 3/32 · simulated handwriting

Name: Sam Patel

Date: 09/24/2026

Read the passage:

Marisol kept a small notebook in her backpack. Each afternoon she wrote three things she noticed on the walk home: a cracked sidewalk tile, a dog that always barked twice, the smell of bread from the corner bakery. One Tuesday the bakery was closed. Marisol wrote that down too, then added, "Even missing things are worth noticing."

1. What does Marisol keep in her backpack?

a small ...

2. How many things does she usually write each afternoon?

three

3. What was different on Tuesday?

the bakery...

4. In the last sentence, "missing things" most nearly means ____.

things that are absent / not there

5. Identify the noun in: "The bakery smelled wonderful." (bakery / smelled / wonderful) bak...

6. Rewrite correctly: she walk home slow.

She walks home slowly.

7. Is the passage fiction or a news report?

fic...

8. One sentence: what theme does Marisol's note suggest?

Paying attention matters, even when something is missing.

English 8 — Reading & Grammar Quiz

CC0 1.0 synthetic fixture · Kelyra QA · not real student work

Period P1 · Student page 4/32 · simulated handwriting

Name: Casey Nguyen

Date: 09/24/2026

Read the passage:

Marisol kept a small notebook in her backpack. Each afternoon she wrote three things she noticed on the walk home: a cracked sidewalk tile, a dog that always barked twice, the smell of bread from the corner bakery. One Tuesday the bakery was closed. Marisol wrote that down too, then added, "Even missing things are worth noticing."

1. What does Marisol keep in her backpack?

a small notebook

2. How many things does she usually write each afternoon?

three

3. What was different on Tuesday?

the bakery was closed

4. In the last sentence, "missing things" most nearly means ____.

things that are absent / not there

5. Identify the noun in: "The bakery smelled wonderful." (bakery / smelled / wonderful)

bakery

6. Rewrite correctly: she walk home slow.

She walks home slowly

7. Is the passage fiction or a news report?

fiction

8. One sentence: what theme does Marisol's note suggest?

Paying attention matters, even when something is missing

English 8 — Reading & Grammar Quiz

CC0 1.0 synthetic fixture · Kelyra QA · not real student work

Period P1 · Student page 5/32 · simulated handwriting

Name: Riley Brooks

Date: 09/24/2026
~~09/24/2026~~

Read the passage:

Marisol kept a small notebook in her backpack. Each afternoon she wrote three things she noticed on the walk home: a cracked sidewalk tile, a dog that always barked twice, the smell of bread from the corner bakery. One Tuesday the bakery was closed. Marisol wrote that down too, then added, "Even missing things are worth noticing."

1. What does Marisol keep in her backpack?

a small notebook

2. How many things does she usually write each afternoon?

threa

3. What was different on Tuesday?

the bakery was closea

4. In the last sentence, "missing things" most nearly means ____.

things that are absent / not theri

5. Identify the noun in: "The bakery smelled wonderful." (bakery / smelled / wonderful)

bakerx

6. Rewrite correctly: she walk home slow.

She walks home slowlyo

7. Is the passage fiction or a news report?

fictioy

8. One sentence: what theme does Marisol's note suggest?

Paying attention matters, even when something is missinge

English 8 — Reading & Grammar Quiz

CC0 1.0 synthetic fixture · Kelyra QA · not real student work

Period P1 · Student page 6/32 · simulated handwriting

Name: Morgan Kim

Date: 09/24/2026

Read the passage:

Marisol kept a small notebook in her backpack. Each afternoon she wrote three things she noticed on the walk home: a cracked sidewalk tile, a dog that always barked twice, the smell of bread from the corner bakery. One Tuesday the bakery was closed. Marisol wrote that down too, then added, "Even missing things are worth noticing."

1. What does Marisol keep in her backpack?

a small notebook

2. How many things does she usually write each afternoon?

three

3. What was different on Tuesday?

the bakery was closed

4. In the last sentence, "missing things" most nearly means ____.

things that are absent / not there

5. Identify the noun in: "The bakery smelled wonderful." (bakery / smelled / wonderful)

bakery

6. Rewrite correctly: she walk home slow.

7. Is the passage fiction or a news report?

8. One sentence: what theme does Marisol's note suggest?

English 8 — Reading & Grammar Quiz

CC0 1.0 synthetic fixture · Kelyra QA · not real student work

Period P1 · Student page 7/32 · simulated handwriting

Name: Taylor Garcia

Date: 09/24/2026

Read the passage:

Marisol kept a small notebook in her backpack. Each afternoon she wrote three things she noticed on the walk home: a cracked sidewalk tile, a dog that always barked twice, the smell of bread from the corner bakery. One Tuesday the bakery was closed. Marisol wrote that down too, then added, "Even missing things are worth noticing."

1. What does Marisol keep in her backpack?

~~a small notebook~~

2. How many things does she usually write each afternoon?

~~three~~

3. What was different on Tuesday?

~~the bakery was closed~~

4. In the last sentence, "missing things" most nearly means ____.

~~things that are absent / not there~~

5. Identify the noun in: "The bakery smelled wonderful." (bakery / smelled / wonderful)

~~bakery~~
bakery

6. Rewrite correctly: she walk home slow.

~~she walks home slowly.~~

7. Is the passage fiction or a news report?

~~fiction~~
fiction

8. One sentence: what theme does Marisol's note suggest?

~~Paying attention matters, even when something is missing.~~

English 8 — Reading & Grammar Quiz

CC0 1.0 synthetic fixture · Kelyra QA · not real student work

Period P1 · Student page 8/32 · simulated handwriting

Name: Avery Walsh

Date: 09/24/2026

Read the passage:

Marisol kept a small notebook in her backpack. Each afternoon she wrote three things she noticed on the walk home: a cracked sidewalk tile, a dog that always barked twice, the smell of bread from the corner bakery. One Tuesday the bakery was closed. Marisol wrote that down too, then added, "Even missing things are worth noticing."

1. What does Marisol keep in her backpack?

a small notebook

2. How many things does she usually write each afternoon?

three

3. What was different on Tuesday?

the bakery was closed

4. In the last sentence, "missing things" most nearly means ____.

things that are absent / not there

5. Identify the noun in: "The bakery smelled wonderful." (bakery / smelled / wonderful)

bakery

6. Rewrite correctly: she walk home slow.

She walks home slowly.

7. Is the passage fiction or a news report?

fiction

8. One sentence: what theme does Marisol's note suggest?

Paying attention matters, even when something is missing.

English 8 — Reading & Grammar Quiz

CC0 1.0 synthetic fixture · Kelyra QA · not real student work

Period P1 · Student page 9/32 · simulated handwriting

Name: Quinn Hassan

Date: 09/24/2026

Read the passage:

Marisol kept a small notebook in her backpack. Each afternoon she wrote three things she noticed on the walk home: a cracked sidewalk tile, a dog that always barked twice, the smell of bread from the corner bakery. One Tuesday the bakery was closed. Marisol wrote that down too, then added, "Even missing things are worth noticing."

1. What does Marisol keep in her backpack?

a small notebook

2. How many things does she usually write each afternoon?

three

3. What was different on Tuesday?

the bakery was closeu

4. In the last sentence, "missing things" most nearly means ____.

things that are absent / not there

5. Identify the noun in: "The bakery smelled wonderful." (bakery / smelled / wonderful)

bakery

6. Rewrite correctly: she walk home slow.

She walks home slowly.

7. Is the passage fiction or a news report?

fiction

8. One sentence: what theme does Marisol's note suggest?

Paying attention matters, even when something is missing.

English 8 — Reading & Grammar Quiz

CC0 1.0 synthetic fixture · Kelyra QA · not real student work

Period P1 · Student page 10/32 · simulated handwriting

Name: Reese Okoro

Date: 09/24/2026

Read the passage:

Marisol kept a small notebook in her backpack. Each afternoon she wrote three things she noticed on the walk home: a cracked sidewalk tile, a dog that always barked twice, the smell of bread from the corner bakery. One Tuesday the bakery was closed. Marisol wrote that down too, then added, "Even missing things are worth noticing."

1. What does Marisol keep in her backpack?

a small notebook

2. How many things does she usually write each afternoon?

three

3. What was different on Tuesday?

the bakery was closed

4. In the last sentence, "missing things" most nearly means ____.

things that are absent / not there

5. Identify the noun in: "The bakery smelled wonderful." (bakery / smelled / wonderful)

bakery

6. Rewrite correctly: she walk home slow.

She walks home slowly.

7. Is the passage fiction or a news report?

fiction

8. One sentence: what theme does Marisol's note suggest?

Paying attention matters, even when something is missing.

English 8 — Reading & Grammar Quiz

CC0 1.0 synthetic fixture · Kelyra QA · not real student work

Period P1 · Student page 11/32 · simulated handwriting

Name: Cameron Lopez

Date: 09/24/2026

Read the passage:

Marisol kept a small notebook in her backpack. Each afternoon she wrote three things she noticed on the walk home: a cracked sidewalk tile, a dog that always barked twice, the smell of bread from the corner bakery. One Tuesday the bakery was closed. Marisol wrote that down too, then added, "Even missing things are worth noticing."

1. What does Marisol keep in her backpack?

a small ...

2. How many things does she usually write each afternoon?

three

3. What was different on Tuesday?

the bakery...

4. In the last sentence, "missing things" most nearly means ____.

things that are absent / not there

5. Identify the noun in: "The bakery smelled wonderful." (bakery / smelled / wonderful)

bak...

6. Rewrite correctly: she walk home slow.

She walks home slowly.

7. Is the passage fiction or a news report?

fic...

8. One sentence: what theme does Marisol's note suggest?

Paying attention matters, even when something is missing.

English 8 — Reading & Grammar Quiz

CC0 1.0 synthetic fixture · Kelyra QA · not real student work

Period P1 · Student page 12/32 · simulated handwriting

Name: Jamie Singh

Date: 09/24/2026

Read the passage:

Marisol kept a small notebook in her backpack. Each afternoon she wrote three things she noticed on the walk home: a cracked sidewalk tile, a dog that always barked twice, the smell of bread from the corner bakery. One Tuesday the bakery was closed. Marisol wrote that down too, then added, "Even missing things are worth noticing."

1. What does Marisol keep in her backpack?

a small notebook

2. How many things does she usually write each afternoon?

three

3. What was different on Tuesday?

the bakery was closed

4. In the last sentence, "missing things" most nearly means ____.

things that are absent / not there

5. Identify the noun in: "The bakery smelled wonderful." (bakery / smelled / wonderful)

bakery

6. Rewrite correctly: she walk home slow.

she walks home slowly

7. Is the passage fiction or a news report?

fiction

8. One sentence: what theme does Marisol's note suggest?

Paying attention matters, even when something is missing

English 8 — Reading & Grammar Quiz

CC0 1.0 synthetic fixture · Kelyra QA · not real student work

Period P1 · Student page 13/32 · simulated handwriting

Name: Drew Martinez

Date: 09/24/2026

Read the passage:

Marisol kept a small notebook in her backpack. Each afternoon she wrote three things she noticed on the walk home: a cracked sidewalk tile, a dog that always barked twice, the smell of bread from the corner bakery. One Tuesday the bakery was closed. Marisol wrote that down too, then added, "Even missing things are worth noticing."

1. What does Marisol keep in her backpack?

a small notebook

2. How many things does she usually write each afternoon?

three

3. What was different on Tuesday?

the bakery was closey

4. In the last sentence, "missing things" most nearly means ____.

things that are absent / not there

5. Identify the noun in: "The bakery smelled wonderful." (bakery / smelled / wonderful)

bakere

6. Rewrite correctly: she walk home slow.

She walks home slowly

7. Is the passage fiction or a news report?

fictioz

8. One sentence: what theme does Marisol's note suggest?

Paying attention matters, even when something is missingx

English 8 — Reading & Grammar Quiz

CC0 1.0 synthetic fixture · Kelyra QA · not real student work

Period P1 · Student page 14/32 · simulated handwriting

Name: Parker Andersen

Date: 09/24/2026

Read the passage:

Marisol kept a small notebook in her backpack. Each afternoon she wrote three things she noticed on the walk home: a cracked sidewalk tile, a dog that always barked twice, the smell of bread from the corner bakery. One Tuesday the bakery was closed. Marisol wrote that down too, then added, "Even missing things are worth noticing."

1. What does Marisol keep in her backpack?

a small notebook

2. How many things does she usually write each afternoon?

three

3. What was different on Tuesday?

the bakery was closed

4. In the last sentence, "missing things" most nearly means ____.

things that are absent / not there

5. Identify the noun in: "The bakery smelled wonderful." (bakery / smelled / wonderful)

bakery

6. Rewrite correctly: she walk home slow.

7. Is the passage fiction or a news report?

8. One sentence: what theme does Marisol's note suggest?

English 8 — Reading & Grammar Quiz

CC0 1.0 synthetic fixture · Kelyra QA · not real student work

Period P1 · Student page 15/32 · simulated handwriting

Name: Blake Torres

Date: 09/24/2026

Read the passage:

Marisol kept a small notebook in her backpack. Each afternoon she wrote three things she noticed on the walk home: a cracked sidewalk tile, a dog that always barked twice, the smell of bread from the corner bakery. One Tuesday the bakery was closed. Marisol wrote that down too, then added, "Even missing things are worth noticing."

1. What does Marisol keep in her backpack?

~~a small notebook~~

2. How many things does she usually write each afternoon?

~~three~~
~~three~~

3. What was different on Tuesday?

~~the bakery was closed~~
~~the bakery was closed~~

4. In the last sentence, "missing things" most nearly means ____.

~~things that are absent / not there~~
~~things that are absent / not there~~

5. Identify the noun in: "The bakery smelled wonderful." (bakery / smelled / wonderful)

~~bakery~~

6. Rewrite correctly: she walk home slow.

~~She walks home slowly.~~
~~She walks home slowly.~~

7. Is the passage fiction or a news report?

~~fiction~~
~~fiction~~

8. One sentence: what theme does Marisol's note suggest?

~~Paying attention matters, even when something is missing.~~

English 8 — Reading & Grammar Quiz

CC0 1.0 synthetic fixture · Kelyra QA · not real student work

Period P1 · Student page 16/32 · simulated handwriting

Name: Skyler Bennett

Date: 09/24/2026

Read the passage:

Marisol kept a small notebook in her backpack. Each afternoon she wrote three things she noticed on the walk home: a cracked sidewalk tile, a dog that always barked twice, the smell of bread from the corner bakery. One Tuesday the bakery was closed. Marisol wrote that down too, then added, "Even missing things are worth noticing."

1. What does Marisol keep in her backpack?

a small notebook

2. How many things does she usually write each afternoon?

three

3. What was different on Tuesday?

the bakery was closed

4. In the last sentence, "missing things" most nearly means ____.

things that are absent / not there

5. Identify the noun in: "The bakery smelled wonderful." (bakery / smelled / wonderful)

bakery

6. Rewrite correctly: she walk home slow.

She walks home slowly.

7. Is the passage fiction or a news report?

fiction

8. One sentence: what theme does Marisol's note suggest?

Paying attention matters, even when something is missing.

English 8 — Reading & Grammar Quiz

CC0 1.0 synthetic fixture · Kelyra QA · not real student work

Period P1 · Student page 17/32 · simulated handwriting

Name: Finley Cruz

Date: 09/24/2026

Read the passage:

Marisol kept a small notebook in her backpack. Each afternoon she wrote three things she noticed on the walk home: a cracked sidewalk tile, a dog that always barked twice, the smell of bread from the corner bakery. One Tuesday the bakery was closed. Marisol wrote that down too, then added, "Even missing things are worth noticing."

1. What does Marisol keep in her backpack?

a small notebook

2. How many things does she usually write each afternoon?

three

3. What was different on Tuesday?

the bakery was closee

4. In the last sentence, "missing things" most nearly means ____.

things that are absent / not there

5. Identify the noun in: "The bakery smelled wonderful." (bakery / smelled / wonderful)

bakery

6. Rewrite correctly: she walk home slow.

She walks home slowly.

7. Is the passage fiction or a news report?

fiction

8. One sentence: what theme does Marisol's note suggest?

Paying attention matters, even when something is missing.

English 8 — Reading & Grammar Quiz

CC0 1.0 synthetic fixture · Kelyra QA · not real student work

Period P1 · Student page 18/32 · simulated handwriting

Name: Harper Diaz

Date: 09/24/2026

Read the passage:

Marisol kept a small notebook in her backpack. Each afternoon she wrote three things she noticed on the walk home: a cracked sidewalk tile, a dog that always barked twice, the smell of bread from the corner bakery. One Tuesday the bakery was closed. Marisol wrote that down too, then added, "Even missing things are worth noticing."

1. What does Marisol keep in her backpack?

a small notebooi

2. How many things does she usually write each afternoon?

three

3. What was different on Tuesday?

the bakery was closed

4. In the last sentence, "missing things" most nearly means ____.

things that are absent / not there

5. Identify the noun in: "The bakery smelled wonderful." (bakery / smelled / wonderful)

bakery

6. Rewrite correctly: she walk home slow.

She walks home slowly.

7. Is the passage fiction or a news report?

fiction

8. One sentence: what theme does Marisol's note suggest?

Paying attention matters, even when something is missing.

English 8 — Reading & Grammar Quiz

CC0 1.0 synthetic fixture · Kelyra QA · not real student work

Period P1 · Student page 19/32 · simulated handwriting

Name: Emerson Foster

Date: 09/24/2026

Read the passage:

Marisol kept a small notebook in her backpack. Each afternoon she wrote three things she noticed on the walk home: a cracked sidewalk tile, a dog that always barked twice, the smell of bread from the corner bakery. One Tuesday the bakery was closed. Marisol wrote that down too, then added, "Even missing things are worth noticing."

1. What does Marisol keep in her backpack?

a small ...

2. How many things does she usually write each afternoon?

three

3. What was different on Tuesday?

the bakery...

4. In the last sentence, "missing things" most nearly means ____.

things that are absent / not there

5. Identify the noun in: "The bakery smelled wonderful." (bakery / smelled / wonderful)

bak...

6. Rewrite correctly: she walk home slow.

She walks home slowly.

7. Is the passage fiction or a news report?

fic...

8. One sentence: what theme does Marisol's note suggest?

Paying attention matters, even when something is missing.

English 8 — Reading & Grammar Quiz

CC0 1.0 synthetic fixture · Kelyra QA · not real student work

Period P1 · Student page 20/32 · simulated handwriting

Name: Rowan Hughes

Date: 09/24/2026
~~09/24/2026~~

Read the passage:

Marisol kept a small notebook in her backpack. Each afternoon she wrote three things she noticed on the walk home: a cracked sidewalk tile, a dog that always barked twice, the smell of bread from the corner bakery. One Tuesday the bakery was closed. Marisol wrote that down too, then added, "Even missing things are worth noticing."

1. What does Marisol keep in her backpack?

a small notebook

2. How many things does she usually write each afternoon?

three

3. What was different on Tuesday?

the bakery was closed

4. In the last sentence, "missing things" most nearly means ____.

things that are absent / not there

5. Identify the noun in: "The bakery smelled wonderful." (bakery / smelled / wonderful)

bakery

6. Rewrite correctly: she walk home slow.

She walks home slowly

7. Is the passage fiction or a news report?

fiction

8. One sentence: what theme does Marisol's note suggest?

Paying attention matters, even when something is missing

English 8 — Reading & Grammar Quiz

CC0 1.0 synthetic fixture · Kelyra QA · not real student work

Period P1 · Student page 21/32 · simulated handwriting

Name: Sawyer Ibrahim

Date: 09/24/2026
~~09/24/2026~~

Read the passage:

Marisol kept a small notebook in her backpack. Each afternoon she wrote three things she noticed on the walk home: a cracked sidewalk tile, a dog that always barked twice, the smell of bread from the corner bakery. One Tuesday the bakery was closed. Marisol wrote that down too, then added, "Even missing things are worth noticing."

1. What does Marisol keep in her backpack?

a small notebook

2. How many things does she usually write each afternoon?

thre3

3. What was different on Tuesday?

the bakery was closee

4. In the last sentence, "missing things" most nearly means ____.

things that are absent / not therx

5. Identify the noun in: "The bakery smelled wonderful." (bakery / smelled / wonderful)

bakere

6. Rewrite correctly: she walk home slow.

She walks home slowl3o

7. Is the passage fiction or a news report?

fictioe

8. One sentence: what theme does Marisol's note suggest?

Paying attention matters, even when something is missingy

English 8 — Reading & Grammar Quiz

CC0 1.0 synthetic fixture · Kelyra QA · not real student work

Period P1 · Student page 22/32 · simulated handwriting

Name: Phoenix Jenkins

Date: 09/24/2026

Read the passage:

Marisol kept a small notebook in her backpack. Each afternoon she wrote three things she noticed on the walk home: a cracked sidewalk tile, a dog that always barked twice, the smell of bread from the corner bakery. One Tuesday the bakery was closed. Marisol wrote that down too, then added, "Even missing things are worth noticing."

1. What does Marisol keep in her backpack?

a small notebook

2. How many things does she usually write each afternoon?

three

3. What was different on Tuesday?

the bakery was closed

4. In the last sentence, "missing things" most nearly means ____.

things that are absent / not there

5. Identify the noun in: "The bakery smelled wonderful." (bakery / smelled / wonderful)

bakery

6. Rewrite correctly: she walk home slow.

7. Is the passage fiction or a news report?

8. One sentence: what theme does Marisol's note suggest?

English 8 — Reading & Grammar Quiz

CC0 1.0 synthetic fixture · Kelyra QA · not real student work

Period P1 · Student page 23/32 · simulated handwriting

Name: Dakota Kowalski

Date: 09/24/2026

Read the passage:

Marisol kept a small notebook in her backpack. Each afternoon she wrote three things she noticed on the walk home: a cracked sidewalk tile, a dog that always barked twice, the smell of bread from the corner bakery. One Tuesday the bakery was closed. Marisol wrote that down too, then added, "Even missing things are worth noticing."

1. What does Marisol keep in her backpack?

a small notebook

2. How many things does she usually write each afternoon?

three

3. What was different on Tuesday?

the bakery was closed
the bakery was closed

4. In the last sentence, "missing things" most nearly means _____.

things that are absent / not there

5. Identify the noun in: "The bakery smelled wonderful." (bakery / smelled / wonderful)

bakery

6. Rewrite correctly: she walk home slow.

she walks home slowly.

7. Is the passage fiction or a news report?

fiction
fiction

8. One sentence: what theme does Marisol's note suggest?

Paying attention matters, even when something is missing.

English 8 — Reading & Grammar Quiz

CC0 1.0 synthetic fixture · Kelyra QA · not real student work

Period P1 · Student page 24/32 · simulated handwriting

Name: Hayden Lee

Date: 09/24/2026

Read the passage:

Marisol kept a small notebook in her backpack. Each afternoon she wrote three things she noticed on the walk home: a cracked sidewalk tile, a dog that always barked twice, the smell of bread from the corner bakery. One Tuesday the bakery was closed. Marisol wrote that down too, then added, "Even missing things are worth noticing."

1. What does Marisol keep in her backpack?

a small notebook

2. How many things does she usually write each afternoon?

three

3. What was different on Tuesday?

the bakery was closed

4. In the last sentence, "missing things" most nearly means ____.

things that are absent / not there

5. Identify the noun in: "The bakery smelled wonderful." (bakery / smelled / wonderful)

bakery

6. Rewrite correctly: she walk home slow.

She walks home slowly.

7. Is the passage fiction or a news report?

fiction

8. One sentence: what theme does Marisol's note suggest?

Paying attention matters, even when something is missing.

English 8 — Reading & Grammar Quiz

CC0 1.0 synthetic fixture · Kelyra QA · not real student work

Period P1 · Student page 25/32 · simulated handwriting

Name: Logan Morales

Date: 09/24/2026

Read the passage:

Marisol kept a small notebook in her backpack. Each afternoon she wrote three things she noticed on the walk home: a cracked sidewalk tile, a dog that always barked twice, the smell of bread from the corner bakery. One Tuesday the bakery was closed. Marisol wrote that down too, then added, "Even missing things are worth noticing."

1. What does Marisol keep in her backpack?

a small notebook

2. How many things does she usually write each afternoon?

three

3. What was different on Tuesday?

the bakery was closed

4. In the last sentence, "missing things" most nearly means ____.

things that are absent / not there

5. Identify the noun in: "The bakery smelled wonderful." (bakery / smelled / wonderful)

bakery

6. Rewrite correctly: she walk home slow.

She walks home slowly.

7. Is the passage fiction or a news report?

fiction

8. One sentence: what theme does Marisol's note suggest?

Paying attention matters, even when something is missing.

English 8 — Reading & Grammar Quiz

CC0 1.0 synthetic fixture · Kelyra QA · not real student work

Period P1 · Student page 26/32 · simulated handwriting

Name: Peyton Nakamura

Date: 09/24/2026

Read the passage:

Marisol kept a small notebook in her backpack. Each afternoon she wrote three things she noticed on the walk home: a cracked sidewalk tile, a dog that always barked twice, the smell of bread from the corner bakery. One Tuesday the bakery was closed. Marisol wrote that down too, then added, "Even missing things are worth noticing."

1. What does Marisol keep in her backpack?

a small notebooz

2. How many things does she usually write each afternoon?

three

3. What was different on Tuesday?

the bakery was closed

4. In the last sentence, "missing things" most nearly means ____.

things that are absent / not there

5. Identify the noun in: "The bakery smelled wonderful." (bakery / smelled / wonderful)

bakery

6. Rewrite correctly: she walk home slow.

She walks home slowly.

7. Is the passage fiction or a news report?

fiction

8. One sentence: what theme does Marisol's note suggest?

Paying attention matters, even when something is missing.

English 8 — Reading & Grammar Quiz

CC0 1.0 synthetic fixture · Kelyra QA · not real student work

Period P1 · Student page 27/32 · simulated handwriting

Name: Charlie Owens

Date: 09/24/2026

Read the passage:

Marisol kept a small notebook in her backpack. Each afternoon she wrote three things she noticed on the walk home: a cracked sidewalk tile, a dog that always barked twice, the smell of bread from the corner bakery. One Tuesday the bakery was closed. Marisol wrote that down too, then added, "Even missing things are worth noticing."

1. What does Marisol keep in her backpack?

a small ...

2. How many things does she usually write each afternoon?

three

3. What was different on Tuesday?

the bakery...

4. In the last sentence, "missing things" most nearly means ____.

things that are absent / not there

5. Identify the noun in: "The bakery smelled wonderful." (bakery / smelled / wonderful)

bak...

6. Rewrite correctly: she walk home slow.

She walks home slowly.

7. Is the passage fiction or a news report?

fic...

8. One sentence: what theme does Marisol's note suggest?

Paying attention matters, even when something is missing.

English 8 — Reading & Grammar Quiz

CC0 1.0 synthetic fixture · Kelyra QA · not real student work

Period P1 · Student page 28/32 · simulated handwriting

Name: Elliot Perez

Date: 09/24/2026

Read the passage:

Marisol kept a small notebook in her backpack. Each afternoon she wrote three things she noticed on the walk home: a cracked sidewalk tile, a dog that always barked twice, the smell of bread from the corner bakery. One Tuesday the bakery was closed. Marisol wrote that down too, then added, "Even missing things are worth noticing."

1. What does Marisol keep in her backpack?

a small notebook

2. How many things does she usually write each afternoon?

three

3. What was different on Tuesday?

the bakery was closed

4. In the last sentence, "missing things" most nearly means ____.

things that are absent / not there

5. Identify the noun in: "The bakery smelled wonderful." (bakery / smelled / wonderful)

bakery

6. Rewrite correctly: she walk home slow.

she walks home slowly

7. Is the passage fiction or a news report?

fiction

8. One sentence: what theme does Marisol's note suggest?

Paying attention matters, even when something is missing

English 8 — Reading & Grammar Quiz

CC0 1.0 synthetic fixture · Kelyra QA · not real student work

Period P1 · Student page 29/32 · simulated handwriting

Name: Parker Quinn

Date: 09/24/2026

Read the passage:

Marisol kept a small notebook in her backpack. Each afternoon she wrote three things she noticed on the walk home: a cracked sidewalk tile, a dog that always barked twice, the smell of bread from the corner bakery. One Tuesday the bakery was closed. Marisol wrote that down too, then added, "Even missing things are worth noticing."

1. What does Marisol keep in her backpack?

a small notebook

2. How many things does she usually write each afternoon?

threze

3. What was different on Tuesday?

the bakery was closee

4. In the last sentence, "missing things" most nearly means ____.

things that are absent / not theri

5. Identify the noun in: "The bakery smelled wonderful." (bakery / smelled / wonderful)

bakex

6. Rewrite correctly: she walk home slow.

She walks home slowlyi

7. Is the passage fiction or a news report?

fictioa

8. One sentence: what theme does Marisol's note suggest?

Paying attention matters, even when something is missingz

English 8 — Reading & Grammar Quiz

CC0 1.0 synthetic fixture · Kelyra QA · not real student work

Period P1 · Student page 30/32 · simulated handwriting

Name: Remy Santos

Date: 09/24/2026

Read the passage:

Marisol kept a small notebook in her backpack. Each afternoon she wrote three things she noticed on the walk home: a cracked sidewalk tile, a dog that always barked twice, the smell of bread from the corner bakery. One Tuesday the bakery was closed. Marisol wrote that down too, then added, "Even missing things are worth noticing."

1. What does Marisol keep in her backpack?

a small notebook

2. How many things does she usually write each afternoon?

three

3. What was different on Tuesday?

the bakery was closed

4. In the last sentence, "missing things" most nearly means ____.

things that are absent / not there

5. Identify the noun in: "The bakery smelled wonderful." (bakery / smelled / wonderful)

bakery

6. Rewrite correctly: she walk home slow.

7. Is the passage fiction or a news report?

8. One sentence: what theme does Marisol's note suggest?

English 8 — Reading & Grammar Quiz

CC0 1.0 synthetic fixture · Kelyra QA · not real student work

Period P1 · Student page 31/32 · simulated handwriting

Name: Kai Thompson

Date: 09/24/2026

Read the passage:

Marisol kept a small notebook in her backpack. Each afternoon she wrote three things she noticed on the walk home: a cracked sidewalk tile, a dog that always barked twice, the smell of bread from the corner bakery. One Tuesday the bakery was closed. Marisol wrote that down too, then added, "Even missing things are worth noticing."

1. What does Marisol keep in her backpack?

a small notebook

2. How many things does she usually write each afternoon?

three

3. What was different on Tuesday?

the bakery was closed

4. In the last sentence, "missing things" most nearly means ____.

things that are absent / not there

5. Identify the noun in: "The bakery smelled wonderful." (bakery / smelled / wonderful)

bakery

6. Rewrite correctly: she walk home slow.

She walks home slowly.

7. Is the passage fiction or a news report?

fiction

8. One sentence: what theme does Marisol's note suggest?

Paying attention matters, even when something is missing.

English 8 — Reading & Grammar Quiz

CC0 1.0 synthetic fixture · Kelyra QA · not real student work

Period P1 · Student page 32/32 · simulated handwriting

Name: Nova Vargas

Date: 09/24/2026

Read the passage:

Marisol kept a small notebook in her backpack. Each afternoon she wrote three things she noticed on the walk home: a cracked sidewalk tile, a dog that always barked twice, the smell of bread from the corner bakery. One Tuesday the bakery was closed. Marisol wrote that down too, then added, "Even missing things are worth noticing."

1. What does Marisol keep in her backpack?

a small notebook

2. How many things does she usually write each afternoon?

three

3. What was different on Tuesday?

the bakery was closed

4. In the last sentence, "missing things" most nearly means ____.

things that are absent / not there

5. Identify the noun in: "The bakery smelled wonderful." (bakery / smelled / wonderful)

bakery

6. Rewrite correctly: she walk home slow.

She walks home slowly.

7. Is the passage fiction or a news report?

fiction

8. One sentence: what theme does Marisol's note suggest?

Paying attention matters, even when something is missing.